Representations of twisted current algebras
Michael Lau, June 2nd 2015 Cologne

Abstract: Current algebras are Lie algebras of regular maps from an affine variety to a finite-dimensional simple Lie algebra. We will discuss some recent work on the classification of finite dimensional and weight representations of these algebras and their twisted counterparts.