

Random subgroups of the infinite symmetric groups and its representations of type II_1 .

Anatoly Vershik

We describe the list of all probability measures on the lattice of the subgroups of infinite symmetric group, which are invariant with respect to conjugation. This list consists mainly with infinite Young subgroups. It happened that each character of that group can be easily expressed using those measures.