Kari Vilonen - Geometric representation theory of real Lie groups

The series of lectures begins with a brief introduction to representation theory of real groups. After that I discuss a few topics that look to be promising research directions at this moment. In particular, I discuss the Langlands/Vogan duality and its categorical enhancement.