

Mail-Configuration for Mac OS X

Name of setting	Setting	Description
Full Name		Choose your sender name as you would like it to appear in messages that you send. Example: Max Mustermann.
Email Address	_____@math.uni-koeln.de	Your email address for this account, e.g. username@math.uni-koeln.de.
Incoming mail server settings
These settings are for downloading messages (receiving email) from your email provider's mail server.
Account Type	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> IMAP	Choose IMAP
Description		Choose the name that Mail will use for your account, such as Work, School, or Yahoo.
Incoming Mail Server (host name)	thales.mi.uni-koeln.de	The host name of the incoming mail server.
User Name		Your username.
Password		The email password you use to sign in to your account. ( Linux Password )
Port	143
Authentication	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Password
Use SSL?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes

Outgoing mail server (SMTP) settings

These settings are for uploading messages (sending email) to your email provider's mail server.

Outgoing mail server (SMTP)	thales.mi.uni-koeln.de	The host name of the outgoing SMTP (Simple Mail Transfer Protocol) server.
Port	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 587	The port number used by the outgoing mail server. Common port numbers for outgoing mail are 25, 465, and 587.
Use SSL?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	Does the outgoing mail server support SSL or TLS encryption?
Authentication	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> None	Choose None.